NOTES

CAMBODIA: Communist-initiated military actions continued at a low level over the weekend, with only minor mortar attacks and small ground probes against widely scattered government positions. On 16 October the enemy sporadically harassed government forces on Route 6, north of Phnom Penh, and Cambodian Army soldiers involved in clearing operations along Routes 2 and 3, south of the capital. No government casualties were reported, however. [REDACTED]

BURMA: Exile leader U Nu has left his sanctuary in Bangkok [REDACTED]

25X1

[REDACTED] has gone underground along the Thai-Burmese border but his present military resources are limited and can probably be contained in the border area by Burmese forces. This move was apparently taken to avoid restrictions on his activities by Thai officials, who granted him asylum over a year ago with the stipulation that he not engage in political activity.
